MR. WITHERS WINS THE STAKE AGAIN.

THE KING ERNEST-MIMI FILLY CARRIES IT OFF IN A CANTER-EASY VICTORIES FOR

FIRENCI AND PRINCE ROYAL. The autumn meeting of the American Jockey Club was opened yesterday in the most agreeable and us manner. The weather was of October's The beautiful grounds were never more attractive, and many improvements had been made since the June meeting. The betting ring is the most convenient, spacious and comfortable to and on any race-course. The track was in good condition and entirely safe, although not extremely fast, except for the straightaway course. The atance was excellent, and would have been still larger if the opening race had been at 2:30 or 2:15, instead of 1:30. Race-goers have now become emed to a late hour for beginning racing, and plans of many Wall-st, brokers and other business The first cace at the September meeting, both heepshead Bay and at Brooklyn, was called at 2:15, although the racing at Sheepshead Bay nom-inally opened at 2 o'clock. This time for beginning the sport enabled people to attend to their business any part of New-York and Brooklyn up to 1 'clock and still reach the race-course in ample the first race. There is really no necessity for racing at so early a time as 1:30, and the Ameri can Jockey Club will certainly increase its attend-ance and give greater satisfaction if it puts off the hour to 2 o'clock, or even 2:15. The sport was conducted so promptly yesterday that the last race was run a few minutes after 4 o'clock, and the assengers of the first train to the city reached the Grand Central Station before 5. There is really no necessity for such extreme promptness as this. If race-goers can see the first race at 2:15 and get back to town by 6 o'clock, they will be in ample for an early dinner and will be thoroughly

But, with the exception of the too early behing to criticise in the management at Jerome. sident John Hunter, cordial, hospitable, generous s ever, welcomed his old racing friends and difd an atmosphere of genial hospitality and good will. Among those present were D. D. Withers, J. O. Donner, J. G. K. Duer, Thomas Hitchcock, jr., B. A. Haggin, Colonel Simmons, James Laird, James Galway, John Kelly, J. Longfeld, General Riggs, of ississippi, William F. Brittain, Colonel Barker, of the Indian Territory, Oden Bowie, jr., Colonel Frank Hall, Charles Whitley, Captain William M. Conner, C. H. Raymond, Charles Stead, the Dwyer brothers and Green B. Morris.

Britannic was a strong favorite for the first race, but, although he got a good start, he seemed not to have his usual speed all, and Sam Harper won the race easily in 1:00 1-4, Swift second, Climax third. Britannic is a wonderful sprinter when he is in the mood to run, but he is always uncertain and erratic and can never be depended upon. He does not bleed at the nose nowadays as he did formerly, but he will not try except when in the humor. The start was over the straight course and was prompt and good, as were all of Mr. Caldwell's starts. By the way, there was some talk at the track about a little difference of opinion which occurred on saturday evening in the bar-room of the St. James Hotel, between Mr. Caldwell and David Johnson, the well-known bookmaker. Mr. Johnson was much dissatisfied with the start which Seymour got on Saturday at the Brooklyn track, and expressed his displeasure in no moderate terms. Mr. Caldwell defended the start and claimed that it was fair to Seymour, as well as to the others. Mr. Johnson to the start and claimed that it was fair to Seymour, as well as to the others. Mr. Johnson to the start which seymour got on the start and claimed that it was fair to Seymour, as well as to the others. Mr. Johnson to the start and claimed that it was fair to Seymour, as well as to the others. Mr. Johnson to the start which seymour got on the start and claimed that it was fair to Seymour, as well as to the others. Mr. Johnson to the start which seymour got on the start which seym a wonderful sprinter when he is in the mood to lost his temper and made some disparaging remark which reflected upon the veracity of Mr. Caldwell's statements. In an infinitesimal part of a second Mr. Caldwell's left landed in the vicinity of Mr. Johnson's nose. Mr. Caldwell promptly followed up the opening gan of the campaign by selzing a cane in Mr. Johnson's hand and giving Mr. Johnson one or two smart taps with it. The two were then separated. At least, this is the story which finds currency on the race course. Mr. Johnson is one of the boldest phingers that the American turf has ever known, and has lost extremely large sums this year in backing the horses of the now separated and broken-up Appleby & Johnson stable. He was still more reckless in much of his betting. He was still more reckless when he provoked a personal encounter with Mr. Caldwell, who is a man of remarkable mescalar strength, starting celerity of movement and exceptional ability to protect himself and to resent reflections on his integrity and honor. Every one familiar with racing recognizes Mr. Caldwell's unrivalled ability in starting. He gives more general satisfaction than any other country. Of course, no human being is faultiess, and no moreal Mr. Johnson's nose. Mr. Caldwell premptly followed up the opening gun of the campaign by selzing a cane who ever held the flag in this or any other country. Of course, no human being is faultiess, and no mortal can always avoid mistakes, but when Mr. Johnson. or anybody else, desires to convince Mr. Caldwell that he has made an error, it would be wise for him to put his criticism in reasonable and temperate language, as Mr. Caldwell is abundantly able to look after himself in any company and in any circumstances.

Mr. Withers has fallen into a habit of winning the Nursery Stakes at Jerome Park and for some time in talking with his friends he has made no secret of his confident expectation that he would carry it off this year with the King Ernest-Mimi filly, full sister to Kinglike and Mikado, who had won it in previous pears. This filly is built on the lines of her famous brothers, a big, long, raking filly, with much power, fine action and great speed. Although she had never started she was heavily backed by all those whom Mr. Withers had told about her, and by many trainers and owners who were familiar with her work. She never left the Nursery Stakes in the slightest doubt, taking a commanding lead in the first two strides, holding it to the finish, and winning it in a canter. The great surprise of the race was the second place, won by McCleilan & Roche's Heyday, a big coit by Iroquois, out of Ontario, magnificent breeding. This was Heyday's third race, and inferior in speed to the Mimi filly, his performance was meritorious. He was sold at the recent Lorillard sale for $1,300. Captain Brown's Infanta and Mr. Belmont's Forest King disappointed their friends sadly, as they were beaten with ease not only by the Mimi filly, but also by Heyday. Only Larchmont and Tea Tray started against Prince Royal for the Jerome Stakes at a mile and three-quarters, with special weight penalties and allowances. Prince Royal carried 12's pounds to Larchmont's 11s and Tea Tray's 112. Prince Royal simply cantered at his case behind the other two up to the last furlong, where he passed them, still in a canter, and won under a double pull. Larchmont ran miserably. Even the contemptible rogue and quitter, Tea Tray, beat him a long way for second place.

Bessie June was withdrawn from the fourth race at year with the King Ernest-Mimi filly, full sister to them, still in a canter, and won under a double pull. Larchmont ran miserably. Even the contemptible regue and quitter, Tea Tray, beat him a long way for second place.

Bessie June was withdrawn from the fourth race stamile and a furiong, and only Favor ventured to start against Firenzi. The betting on Firenzi was 5 to 1 on. She won in the easiest possible manner by a length. Favor was compelled to make the running in front, while Firenzi waited behind and came on at her leisure, never being hurried.

In the fifth race, over the Titan course, 1,400 yards, the good thing on Ovid, so long bottled up, came off at last. This filly has been expected to win a fast race for many months, but she suffered so much from rheumatism, both last year and a part of this year, that it has been very hard to get her fit. Yesterday she beat a fast field with ease, Ress getting second place and Banner Bearer third. Brait, with McLaughlin up, was well backed, but falled to get a place, which was surprising. King Crab, with Bonohue in the saddle, was still more heavily backed and falled to get a place, which was not surprising at all.

The last race was won by Pontico, the favorite, Lafitte being beaten by the wretched riding of Tarai, who did not begin to urge bis horse and innish with him until he had passed the judges. He had delayed his efforts far too long, and yet got second place with a large field well strung out behind him.

The betting arrangements were complete and satisfactory, except for the absence of place betting in the French pools. James E. Kelly, who had charge of the betting ring, said that he would have been glad to furnish place betting in the French, but circumstances were such that he was unable to do so at this meeting. He hoped to have them next year. The price for each bookmaker's stand was seo a day. Seventy-two stands were occupied on these terms, forty-seven by members of the Turf Alliance, and twenty-five by mon-union men, who are not members of this highly objectionable, arrogant, dieratorial and intol

On Monday he worked six furlougs in 1:16 with full weight up, and his trainer thought so well of his chances for a place that he hastened to the track yes-terday, and after having the entry properly transferred from Pierze Lorillard, jr., the nominator, to McClelland & Roche, paid $100 for the privilege of starting him and

TROTTING AT TRENTON.

Trenton, N. J., Oct. 2.—In connection with the Interstate Fair Association here to-day there were two trotting races. At the outset the pleasure was marred by the untimely accident to the eight-year-old trotter Hunter, by Black Dutchman, one of the entries in the 2.37 class. In the preliminary scoring the gelding upset his sulky and ran around the track. Coming up the homestretch he shied into a fence and was impaled on a rail, sustaining injuries of which he died almost immediately. He was the property of W. H. Grant, a local turfite, who solaced himself for the loss by purchasig the young trotters Victoria and Hopemont, both of which were in the races this afternoon. The races were ended quickly in straight heats, owing to the superiority of the bay mare Electra and the young gelding John Furgeson in their respective classes. The latter entered the 2:30 list by his performance in the third heat of the 2:29 class.

For to-morrow there are three races, with a goodly sumber of entries.
